Mr. Hoffman,

If new counsel have been obtained for this matter, kindly forward me their contact information. I have attached a copy of your outstanding filing fee invoice here.

JAMS is not able to proceed to commencement and appointment until that filing fee has been paid. The initial due date for that filing fee has now passed. If the filing fee is not paid by May 19, 2021, JAMS will close this file for lack of payment and participation by Respondent and send correspondence re the same.

Thank you and be well,
Sarah

Claimant's Request For Rule 6 Administrative Conference

Dear Ms. Nevins,

It has been more than three weeks since Claimant Noah Parekh filed and served his arbitration demand and two weeks since counsel for Respondent Calibre One indicated that it was going to retain different defense counsel without any action. Accordingly Claimant respectfully requests an Administrative Conference under Rule 6 of the JAMS Employment Arbitration Rules.

Thank you and have a nice day.

Thank you, Ms. Nevins. We need to address a couple of initial matters.

First, it is unclear whether this matter will proceed in New York. The claimant, Mr. Parekh, worked and resides in Boston.

Second, my firm will not be handling the defense. Calibre One will retain local counsel, either in Boston or New York. We hope to have news on that item in a reasonable time.

So, for the moment, I acknowledge receipt of the request for an initial filing fee on behalf of the company. Other changes will be necessary in the coming weeks.

Best regards,

Michael Hoffman
